

COME ONE, COME ALL TO OUR 2010 TAMPA BUDDY RALLY to be held in conjunction with the Florida RV SuperShow. Gulf Stream has reserved 50 RV sites! All types of RVs are welcome! We would like to invite our old friends and the families and friends of our members who own other brands of RVs to join us at the Florida State Fairgrounds during the Florida RV SuperShow. Since we are a group, our arrival is Tuesday, January 12th, where everyone needs to arrive between the hours of 8:00 AM-4:00 PM. Anyone arriving after 4:00 PM will have to wait until 8:00 PM to enter the parking area. Volunteers of the Florida RV Trade Show parking crew will be in the parking lot to register you and direct you to our reserved area. You need to un-hook your tow car before getting into the registration line. There is room in the parking lot by Orient Road to unhook. Once you register with the parking crew, you will receive a goody bag that will contain a show directory and your wristbands. Wristbands must be worn at all times for entrance into the show, seminars and entertainment. The parking crew will then escort you to the Gulf Stream parking site. Once at the sites, visit the Gulf Stream tent to pick up your final registration packet. The Florida RV SuperShow opens at 9AM, Wednesday, January 13th. Your package includes donuts and coffee each morning in the Club Pavilion inside the Tampa Show, free unlimited admittance to the SuperShow, free admittance to seminars, supplier booths, and three nights' entertainment and refreshments. Check with the fairgrounds for the locations of these activities upon or prior to your arrival. Visit their website at www.frvta.org or call 813-741-0488 for more information. Your rally escorts will be able to answer questions on locations provided in the show package. Featured in the entertainment on Thursday night is "George Raab", Classic Rock & Roll and Country songs that you can sing and dance along with. Friday night is "The Porchdogs", a spicy gumbo of Louisiana Cajun and Zydeco with Florida-grown bluegrass and country rock, and on Saturday night "The Rivoli Revue", Ron & Kay are back featuring a whole new show with travel songs and comedy.

A registration area will be set up in the Gulf Streamers tent, located with our RV sites by the Ford Amphitheater where you will be able to pick up your final registration packet. All social time, welcome reception, potluck dinner, continental breakfasts and farewell buffet breakfast will be held in the Gulf Streamers tent. You may also use this tent to relax or socialize on your own when not attending the show.

The Gulf Streamers Club has also organized an optional dinner on Wednesday, January 13, 2010 catered by Maestro's, and followed by the performance of the popular musical "South Pacific". Visit the Tampa Bay Performing Arts website at www.TBPAC.org. Dress is nice-casual (no jeans, shorts, etc.), charter bus transportation will be provided.
